Living it
LODGE

The inspiration: HUKA LODGE, TAUPO, NEW ZEALAND

Nobody does luxury lodges like New Zealand. And the cream of the incredible crop has to be Huka Lodge, perched on the banks of the Waikato River in the heart of the North Island. While Taupo is a Mecca for adrenalin junkies looking to get their pulse racing, the living area in Huka's Alan Pye Cottage has been executed with more sybaritic pursuits in mind. The feel is cosy yet chic, with layers of texture and a bold splash of strong colour to contrast with lots of light – relaxing – white. hukalodge.co.nz
